

Arkadiko Bridge (Mycenaen)
1301 BC

Uses Corbel keystone in short bridge to support arches.

Via Appia, Rome
313 BC

Stone-paved road from Rome to Brindisi on the east coast of Italy.

Pons Aemilius
180 BC – 143 BC

Oldest stone bridge in Rome. Six stone arches.
Built when the via Aurelia was constructed;
repaired and rebuilt repeatedly until 1598, whe...

Pont du Gard Aqueduct, France
20 BC

The Pont du Gard has three levels:
* Bottom: 6 arches, 142 meters long, 6 m thick, 22 high; carries road...

Aqua Claudia
AD 37 – AD 51

69 km long (45 miles).

Timgad, Liberia
AD 99 – AD 535

Best surviving example of the grid plan of Roman cities. Originally a military colony, its population was well above 15 000 at the city's height aroun...

Pantheon, Roma
AD 125 – AD 202

Concrete Dome

Valens Aqueduct
AD 348

Built around 360 A.D. to bring water collected from 250 km of waterways into Byzantium

