

Samuel Wilberforce

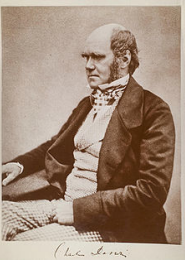

AD 1805 – AD 1873

Chaplain to Prince Albert and Bishop of Oxford, Wilberforce participated in an well-publicized debate with Thomas Huxley on Darwin's theory.

Charles Robert Darwin

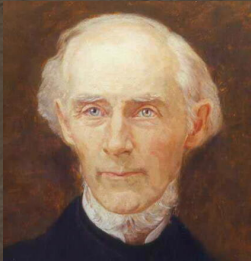

AD 1809 – AD 1882

Developed a theory of evolution in which all species descended from common ancestors.

Richard Owen

AD 1810 – AD 1890

President of Purdue University and geologist who originally supported, then criticized Darwin's theories.

Thomas Huxley

AD 1825 – AD 1895

English biologist who supported Darwin and debated with Samuel Wilberforce.

St. George Jackson Mivart

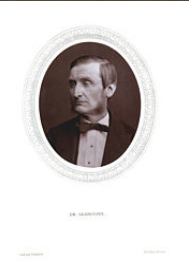

AD 1827 – AD 1900

English biologist who began as a support of natural selection but ended as a fierce opponent of Darwin.

John Hall Gladstone

AD 1827 – AD 1902

Chemist who attempted to reconcile Scripture with Natural Science in the wake of Darwin's publications.

AD 1810

AD 1815

AD 1820

AD 1825

AD 1830